TOR-NIDO TIDBITS

Everybody Surprises Everybody Else at Surprise Birthday Party

By VERA C. WRIGHT
FR 2-2328

How many times have you heard a scoffing male say, "If you want it to be a secret, don't tell a woman?"

Women can keep secrets—proof of this is the fact that a surprise party was held to celebrate the birthdays of Mrs. Glen Runsted, Mrs. Sarah R. Hooker and Mrs. W. A. Wright (myself), at the home of Mrs. Ray Torrence, 18305 Roslin Ave.

Very secretly, I cautioned guests not to let the cat out of the bag for although my sister, Mrs. Hooker, and I were supposedly hosting a surprise birthday party for Mrs. Runsted, it was also a party for my sister.

Imagine my dismay as I walked in the door ready to yell "Happy birthday, Sarah and Enid!" when a chorus of "Happy birthday, Vera!" greeted me!

More and more of our vacationing neighbors are taking one, two, or three day trips to acquaint themselves with the nearby places of interest.

The A. MacKenzie family, of 4332 W. 179th St., crossed the Nevada border to Carson City where they viewed many historical places including the quaint ghost town of Virginia City.

Another jaunt took the Mackenzie to Monterey where they saw the lovely mission in Carmel and many other historical places. Even the earthquake that occurred when they were there wasn't given a second thought.

Artful lighting transformed the Wright hacienda into a fairland for alfresco entertaining to celebrate Mrs. Sarah R. Hooker's birthday. Mr. and Mrs. John F. White co-hosted the gala affair along with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wright. Many couples enjoyed the barbecued patio dinner.

Mrs. F. Brackett and Mrs. Ira Hon escorted Helen Hon. Alan Brackett, Kathleen Henning, Barbara Hon. Kathy Brackett and Gary Gene Henning to the Hawthorne Hospital to visit former north Torrance resident, David Jester, who is recovering from an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Henning and family can write a book about enchanting Gulf of Mexico which they visited on their three weeks vacation trip. They also visited many other points of interest including Texas, Oklahoma, and Las Vegas.

Grapes, grapes, and more grapes can be seen in the Anthony Roza household, 18336

Roslin Ave., for the Rozas with Tony Jr. and Marie just returned from a week end jaunt to Kingsburg where they visited with Mrs. Roza's aunt, who owns the grape vineyards.

School time takes on a wonderful meaning for Frances Hon of 4254 W. 182nd St., who spent a few days with her Grandmother Davies in North Hollywood and indulged in a shopping trip for school clothes and shoes.

Miss Terry Torrence and her brothers, Mike and Larry, helped mom and dad, the Ray Torrences, of 18305 Roslin Ave., hostess their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Westmoreland, of Palmdale, who spent the Labor Day week end with the Torrence family.

This indeed was the month of surprises in our community for Mrs. Glen Runsted was in for a surprise visit from her son, Gordon Cambridge, who with his family moved to Sacramento a few months ago.

Oklahoma and Toronto, Canada, held a special fascination for the M. J. Norton family, of 4335 W. 180th St., who visited relatives enroute to sightseeing pleasures.

EL CAMINOTES

By Margie Lane

Today the routine thought of a new week will waken in the minds of most of the Torrance populace.

But to many young Torrance men and women, not forgetting myself, it begins an important first day at college, the starting point of higher education and "the road of knowledge," which in Spanish means El Camino.

A rapidly growing community in itself, El Camino J. C. proudly possesses 13 permanent modern buildings, a faculty of 145 full-time teachers and is assessed at an evaluation well over $400,000.00. As of last week the enrollment reached over 5500 with several hundred more expected to register by the 16, the last day of registration. Quite a growth from nine years ago when classes were scattered about in nearby high schools.

With the freshman in mind, the Associated Student Body officers, headed by Richard Duffy, played host at an Orientation Assembly Thursday. Here, they put themselves to the service of the freshman by answering his questions concerning the college policies, activities, and traditions.

President of the college, Forrest Murdoch, and his administration was introduced, while at the end of the program refreshments and tours of the campus were enjoyed.

Do you have a thick wallet? That's good, because upon presenting the salesman of the E.C. book store with that 17 1/2 unit course and studiously asking for new books you will probably find yourself eased of about $30.

Now, if you find that wallet a little hungrier looking, this bit of info will give your pocket-book a sigh of relief. At the beginning of each semester, a veteran organization operates a used book exchange where you, the student, may purchase books at a handsomely reduced rate.

While still in high school I, and my journalism classmates, visited the University of Redlands on a "Press Day," and there enjoyed a delicious lunch.

Shortly after, we excursioned to Camino for their "Press Day," and enjoyed an even more scrumptious lunch.

I am still not certain that it wasn't that wonderful lunch which turned my then undecided mind toward a studying future at El Camino.

At the peak of lunch hour which is at 11, this spacious cafeteria and dining room seats 850. Luncheon is served from 10:30 to 2, and dinner from 4 to 7, except on Fridays when the cafeteria closes at 2.

DR. D'ALESSIO OPENS PALOS VERDES CLINIC

The opening of a medical and surgical center at 2301 Palos Verdes Dr. West, has been announced by Dr. Joseph A. D'Alesio, who is moving his clinic from Beverly Hills.

The clinic will include equipment for all types of medical care—a clinical laboratory, x-ray services, and medical, surgical, obstetrical, and gynecological facilities. Licensed by the California Public Health Department, the clinic will provide care for the entire family, based on the ability to pay, he said.

A veteran of 25 years of practice, Dr. D'Alesio holds AB, HMD, MS and LLD degrees. He graduated from Catholic University and received his Doctor of Medicine and Surgery degree from Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital of Philadelphia.

A member of many medical associations, he is a former doctor in the Naval Reserve and Army Air Force. He is a former chief surgeon and medical director of the Basic Oxide Hospital at Las Vegas, Nev., and the United Verde Hospital of the Phelps Dodge Copper Corp. of Arizona. He is a former police, fire, and compensation surgeon for the city of Santa Barbara, served as president of the Italian Board of Education there, and was a candidate for mayor of the city.

He lives at 632 Palos Verdes Blvd.
